

VETERANS

Did you miss graduating from high school
due to military service?

You may be eligible to receive a high school diploma.

The Honorary High School Diploma, created by State Superintendent Linda McCulloch and passed by the 2003 Montana Legislature, will honor those in our state who discontinued their high school education due to military service.

★ Eligibility ★

To be eligible for an Honorary High School Diploma, the veteran must meet all of the following requirements:

- ★ Be a current or former Montana resident.
- ★ Did not receive a high school diploma.
- ★ Actively served in the United States armed services during one of the following periods:
 - World War II from 1939 through 1947,
 - Korean War from 1950 through 1953,
 - Vietnam War from 1961 through 1975.
- ★ Was honorably discharged or was released from active duty because of a service-related disability.

If you have a qualifying family member who is now deceased, you may apply for posthumous recognition.
